“The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangement you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any item you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.”

Please note there may be additional charges for extra expenses and special request items not listed such as newspaper notices, flowers, certified copies of death certificates, outside expenses, etc.

Basic Services of Direct Disposer and Staff and Overhead..... $ 295.00

Our services include: the arrangement conference; consulting with family; sheltering of the remains; preparing and filing necessary notices; obtaining necessary legal authorizations and permits; coordinating with crematory, or other third parties; in addition, this fee includes a share of our basic overhead cost. This fee does not include any charges by newspapers or other publications for any requested notices we place at your request.

“This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations.)”

Refrigeration: (in lieu of embalming) $ 60.00

“Except in special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as a direct cremations or immediate burial.”

Embalming is not required for direct cremations and our establishment does not provide embalming. It is our firm’s policy to require refrigeration of an unembalmed body.
