A. * Basic Services of Funeral Director, Staff and Overhead.....$1,850.00

Our services include: Conducting the arrangements conference planning the funeral; consulting with family and clergy; shelter of remains; preparing and filing necessary notices; obtaining necessary authorizations and permits coordinating with the cemetery, crematory, or other third parties. In addition, this fee includes a proportionate share of our basic overhead costs, such as professional licensing, legal and accounting fees, insurance, building and utility expenses, parking lot and grounds maintenance, taxes equipment, furnishings, inventory costs, environmental protection fees, record keeping, and secretarial and administrative expenses.

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

Embalming$695.00

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial. It is the policy of Farrar Funeral Homes Corporation to require embalming when funeral arrangements are selected that involves public viewing of the remains.

Embalming Autopsied Remains or Organ Donations.....$895.00

If embalming is not requested, it is the policy of Farrar Funeral Home that cremation or burial will take place within 36-hours after death. This is not a federal or state guideline, but a Farrar Funeral Home policy only.

A shelterization/ refrigeration charge of $55 per day will incur if disposition does not take place within the stated guidelines of the funeral home.
