This payment policy also enables us to maintain our affordable costs to all the families we serve.
Our Policy is as follows.

Financial arrangements and payment must be completed prior to services.

Payments for merchandise and cash advances such as death certificates are due prior to services.

We offer our families the following payment options.

- ❖ Cash
- ❖ Check
- ❖ Prepaid Funeral Arrangements
- ❖ Verified Insurance Assignments
- ❖ Credit Cards (Visa, MasterCard)*

*there is a 3% convenience fee added for the use of credit cards.

Financial Hardships

We encourage you to speak openly about any financial hardship you may be experiencing.
We take pride in serving all who call our firm including those with financial difficulty.
We can make suggestions to keep your costs affordable.
Still, we understand there are those who need assistance in order for their needs to be met.
We work closely with local departments of Social Services, Worker's compensation departments,
Church organizations and other potential sources of funding.
We are here to help, as long as families understand that some compromises may be needed.
If you should find yourself in this situation please bring it to our attention at the beginning of the arrangement conference, or prior to the passing of your loved one.
After services have been rendered we will make no reduction or accommodations in cost.

Dear Families and Friends we have the honor to serve,

At Autumn Funerals & Cremations, we take exceptional pride in our reputation for excellence in service and affordable prices. While other firms talk about their history, it is often masked by numerous changes in ownership. We at Autumn Funerals & Cremations are proud to be locally owned and Owner operated. We are dedicated to serve Carson City and the surrounding areas with the same care and compassion that we would serve our own family. Our purpose is to:

Help families make well-planned arrangements in their time of need.

Provided a warm peaceful environment where people may gather to honor and celebrate the life of a loved one.

Preserve long standing traditions as well as embracing new contemporary ideas and ways of celebrating a life.

Offer personalized and affordable services and products

Be good citizens of our community by being actively involved in our community, church and civic functions.

We believe the success of any business requires dedication and professionalism. In our profession, it also requires a great deal of kindness, compassion and attention to detail. You'll find these qualities in each and every member of our staff at Autumn Funerals & Cremations. Put your trust in us to make this experience as comfortable and carefree as it possibly can be.

Our caring and experienced professionals are here to support you through this difficult time. We are dedicated to serving all faiths, clubs, and organizations.

At Autumn Funerals & Cremations we hope that you leave feeling that you have made a friend, not just handled business. Autumn Funerals & Cremations, where our caring truly comes from the heart.

Sincerely,
John & Debbie Lawrence
